Processing by Gogo Games

This privacy and cookie policy applies to the processing of data by Gogo Games. (hereinafter: "GOGO GAMES"). Responsibilities for the processing of personal data lie with GOGO GAMES.

You can use our services in several ways: to find and share information, communicate with other people or create new content. When you share information with us, for example by creating an account, we can improve those services to show you more relevant search results, connect you with other people, or make content sharing faster and easier. We want you to be able to see clearly how we use your information and the ways in which you can protect your privacy when using our services.

Our Privacy Policy explains:

- What information we collect and why.
- How we use the collected data.
- The options we offer to, among other things, view and update your data.

Your privacy is important to GOGO GAMES. That's why we ask that you take the time to review our Privacy Policy . If you have any questions, please contact us at support@gogo-games.com.

Providing personal data is not mandatory.

You are not obliged to disclose your personal data when you purchase a product or service from us. You always have the choice whether you want to enter your personal data or not. However, in order to be able to use some of our products and services, entering personal data is necessary.

Children younger than 16 years old

Are you not yet 16 years old? Then ask your parents for permission to use our products and services and let them read this privacy and cookie policy.

Information we collect

We collect information to provide better services to all of our users, from determining basic information, such as the language you speak, to more complex things.

We collect information in the following ways:

Information you provide to us

Many of our services require you to sign in or register. When you do this, we may ask you for your personal information, such as your name, email address, telephone number. This data is stored in your account.

Information we receive based on your use of our services

We collect information about the services you use and how you use them, such as when you visit a website, when you use one of our products, or view our advertisements and content and used. This data includes:

Device data

We collect device-specific data, such as hardware model, operating system version, unique device identifiers, sensor data, and mobile network data.

Log File Data

When you use our services or view content provided by GOGO GAMES, certain information is automatically collected and stored in server log files. This data includes:

- Details about how you have used our service, such as your searches.
- IP (Internet Protocol) address.
- Information about device events, such as crashes, system activity, hardware settings, browser type, browser language, the date and time of your request and the referring URL.

Location Information

When you use GOGO GAMES services, we may collect and process information about your actual location. We use various technologies to determine location, including IP address, and zip codes you provide, or GPS data, etc.

Unique application numbers

Certain services contain a unique application number. This number and information about your installation (for example, the operating system type and application version number) may be sent to GOGO GAMES when you install or uninstall that service.

Local Storage

We may collect and store data (including personal data) locally on your device using mechanisms such as browser web storage and application data caches.

Cookies and Similar Technologies

We and our third-party partners use a variety of technologies to collect and store information when you visit a GOGO GAMES service, which may include the use of cookies or similar technologies to identify your browser or device. We also use these technologies to collect and store data when you use services that we offer to our third-party partners, such as advertising services or Google features such as Google Analytics that may appear on our sites.

Information we collect when you are logged in to GOGO GAMES, as well as information about you that we obtain from third-party partners, we treat as personal information.

How We Use Information We Collect

We use the information from all of our services to provide, maintain, secure and improve the services, to develop new services, and to protect GOGO GAMES and our users. We also use this data to deliver personalized content to you, such as more relevant search results.

If you have a GOGO GAMES account, we may display your profile name, profile picture and actions you perform in applications associated with your GOGO GAMES account in our services such as your avatar in a computer game. We respect the settings you specify in the GOGO GAMES account related to the display and sharing of, for example, your profile.

When you contact GOGO GAMES, we'll record your messages to help resolve any issues you're experiencing. We may use your email address to inform you about our services, for example to notify you of upcoming changes or improvements.

We use information collected from cookies and other technologies, such as pixel tags, to improve your user experience and the overall quality of our services. Google Analytics is one of the products we use to do this. For example, saving your language preferences allows us to display our services in your preferred language.

We ask for your consent before using data for purposes other than those described in this Privacy Policy .

GOGO GAMES processes personal data on our servers in many different countries around the world. We may process your personal data on a server located outside of your country of residence.

Clarity and options

People are concerned about their privacy in various ways. Our goal is to be clear about the data we collect so that you can make informed decisions about how your data is used. For example, in your GOGO GAMES account (profiles):

- Adjust elements, for example in what form the profile exists.
- Take data associated with your GOGO GAMES account from many of our services to another service Choose whether to display your Profile Name and Profile Picture to others.

- Delete profile data (possibly on request).

You can also set your browser to block all cookies, including those associated with our services, or to indicate when we place a cookie. However, it is important to remember that many of our services may not function properly if your cookies are disabled. For example, we cannot remember your language preferences. See also topic cookies.

Information you share

Many of our services allow you to share information with others. Remember that when you share data publicly, it can be indexed by search engines, including Google. Our services provide you with several options for sharing and removing your content.

View and update your personal information.

When you use our services, we try to give you access to your personal information. If that data is inaccurate, we will try to provide you with ways to quickly update or delete this data, unless we need to keep that data for legitimate business or legal purposes. When you update your personal information, we may ask you to verify your identity before we can process your request.

We may refuse requests that are unreasonably recovered, disproportionate, require technical effort (such as developing a new system or making fundamental changes to an existing practice), compromise the privacy of others, or would be highly impractical (such as regarding data residing on backup systems).

Where we can provide you with opportunities to access and correct data, we will do so free of charge, except where it would require a disproportionate effort. We strive to maintain our services in a manner that protects data from accidental or malicious destruction. Therefore, after you delete data from our services, we may not immediately delete residual copies from our active servers or delete data from our backup systems.

Information we share

We do not share personal information with companies, organizations and individuals outside of GOGO GAMES except in one of the following circumstances, and only with third party partners:

With your consent

We share personal information with companies, organizations or individuals outside GOGO GAMES where you have given us permission to do so. We need explicit consent to share sensitive personal information.

For external processing

We provide personal data to our third party partners or other trusted companies or individuals for them to process the data for us, based on our instructions and in accordance with our Privacy Policy and other appropriate confidentiality and security measures.

For legal reasons

We share personal information with companies, organizations or individuals outside of GOGO GAMES when we believe in good faith that access, use, preservation or disclosure of the information is reasonably necessary to:

- Comply with applicable laws and regulations, legal process or requests from government authorities.
- Enforce applicable Terms of Service, including investigating possible violations.
- Detect, prevent, or otherwise address fraud and technical or security issues.
- Protect the rights, property, or safety of GOGO GAMES, our users, or the public, as required or permitted by law.

We may share non-personally identifiable information publicly and with our third-party partners (such as publishers, advertisers, or linked sites). For example, we may share information publicly to show trends regarding the general use of our services.

If GOGO GAMES is involved in a merger, acquisition, or asset sale, we will continue to maintain the confidentiality of personal information and notify affected users before personal information is transferred or subject to a different Privacy Policy.

Data Security

We work hard to protect GOGO GAMES and our users from unauthorized access to, or unauthorized alteration, disclosure, or destruction of data in our possession. In particular:

- We encrypt many of our services with SSL.
- We evaluate our data collection, storage and processing practices, including physical security measures, to protect against unauthorized access to systems.
- We limit access to personal data to GOGO GAMES employees, contractors and agents who need to know this data in order to process it for us. These individuals are subject to strict contractual confidentiality obligations and may be subject to sanctions or dismissal if they fail to comply with these obligations.

When this Privacy Policy applies

Our Privacy Policy applies to all services offered by GOGO GAMES, services that GOGO GAMES provides on Android, IOS or Windows Mobile devices and services offered on websites, but not services that have a separate Privacy Policy that Privacy Policy does not include.

Our Privacy Policy does not apply to services provided by other companies or individuals, including products or sites that may be displayed to you in search results, sites that contain services, or other sites linked to our services. Our Privacy Policy does not cover the data policies of other companies and organizations that advertise on our services and who may use cookies, pixel tags and other technologies to display and deliver relevant advertisements.

Compliance and cooperation with supervisory authorities

We regularly check whether we comply with our Privacy Policy. We also adhere to several guidelines. When we receive formal written complaints, we will contact the person who made the complaint to discuss follow-up actions. We work with appropriate regulatory authorities, including local data protection authorities, to resolve complaints regarding transfers of personal data that we are unable to resolve directly with our users.

Changes

Our Privacy Policy may be changed from time to time. We do not limit your rights under this Privacy Policy without your express consent. We will post any changes to Privacy Policy on this page and, if the changes are significant, we will provide a more prominent notice (including, for certain services, email notifications of Privacy Policy changes). We also keep previous versions of this Privacy Policy in an archive for you to consult.

Cookies Policy

Cookies are simple small text files that are stored on the hard drive or memory of your computer/mobile/tablet. Cookies can your computer or the files on not damage it. Both we and advertisers and between parties may use cookies on our websites.

Cookies allow you to be recognized on our websites when you visit them again. For example, we use cookies to:

- keep track of which products you have in your shopping cart or to record the preferences you have set for a particular service or web page;
- for statistical purposes. Among other things, to be able to see how often a website is visited, through which website(s) visitors have come to our website(s) and which pages on a website are visited; • (provided you have given permission) to better tailor advertisements on the websites you visit to your needs and interests, to prevent you from seeing a particular advertisement too often and to register how often an advertisement is shown.

If you have disabled cookies via your browser settings, there is a chance that certain functions will not work or that you will not be able to use certain services. In any case, you will then see the cookie information bar on every page, since our websites will then not be able to save (in a cookie) that you have visited the website before and may have even made a choice between accepting or not accepting cookies. .

We may exchange personal data processed by us with third party partners of GOGO GAMES and combine your personal data with data collected in connection with your purchase or use of our products or services (or third party products or services partners). Our third party partners can be found under the business to business page of GOGO GAMES and via the link partners. This also applies to surfing data collected via cookies.

Google and its group company DoubleClick, among others, present advertisements on our websites or applications on our behalf. They also place cookies on your computer for this. Again, this only happens on our websites if you have given permission to do so. This permission only applies to our websites. The cookies placed by Google (Analytics) and DoubleClick are placed on our behalf. Google acts as processor within the meaning of the Personal Data Protection Act, with GOGO GAMES being responsible.

You can decide at any time whether you want to accept or refuse cookies. On your first visit to our website(s), you will be extensively informed about the use of cookies, and you will be given the option via your browser settings to accept or (partially) refuse. You can change that choice at any time later. You can also accept or refuse cookies from certain parties within a certain category. For example, you cannot www.google.nl/privacy_ads.html opt out of the placement of cookies by Google and its partners.

Transfer to third countries

The servers that DoubleClick uses to serve advertisements on our websites are located outside the European Union. In order to present the correct, Dutch-language advertisements, we provide location data to DoubleClick. An adequate level of protection is guaranteed since DoubleClick has declared that it adheres to the 'safe harbor' privacy regulations and Google will only use this data for the performance of the agreement with us (and therefore will not use it for its own purposes).
